{If Tel: Before we move on to our next question, I just wanted to provide some explanation about/as to why we ask this. We ask this question on sex to make sure our study is representative of the population. To do this we use population estimates, such as those from the Census, so we ask questions on sex and gender in a similar way to the 2021 Census for this reason.

This information can also help our data users such as charities, organisations, and local and central government to understand differences in opinions.

If you are considering how to answer, use the sex recorded on your birth certificate or Gender Recognition Certificate or passport.

A voluntary question on gender identity will follow this question. This asks if the gender you identify with is different from your sex registered at birth. If it is different, you can then record your gender identity.}

By doing so you can continue to represent the opinions and experiences of people like you on important issues that affect us all

These short surveys will typically…

- be available to complete online or over the phone
- last around 15 minutes
- include a £5 voucher to thank you for your time
- be every couple of months or so

Would it be okay for us to contact you as part of this research? You can decide at the time whether or not to take part.

{WEB: "Please click on the links below for some more information about the study.";
TEL: "Do you have any questions about this research I can help with?}

[HELP SMALL IN GREEN TEXT]: Why is it important I take part?
This study will collect information on the experiences and opinions of thousands of people across Britain. This will be used by government, charities and academics to help them make the right decisions.

It is vital that we get the views of people from all different parts of the country, from different backgrounds, and in different circumstances. That is why it is important that you take part – by giving your perspective you will help to make sure the views and experiences of people like you are represented.

[HELP SMALL IN GREEN TEXT]: What will taking part involve?
You will be invited to take part in short questionnaires lasting around 15 minutes every couple of months or so. We will ask you questions on a range of topics, from housing and education, to health and happiness, or government policy and the environment.

[HELP SMALL IN GREEN TEXT]: Do I have to take part in every survey?
Taking part is your choice. If you would rather not take part in one of our surveys, you can ignore our messages or let us know. If you want to stop taking part you can simply let us know and we will update your records.

[HELP SMALL IN GREEN TEXT]: Will I receive a voucher for taking part?
Each invitation will explain what you will receive for taking part. You will receive a shopping voucher as a thank you for taking part in most questionnaires.

[HELP SMALL IN GREEN TEXT]: What will you do with the information I give?
As with BSA, the information you give will be used for research purposes only and held securely in accordance with current data protection legislation. Most of the results will appear as statistics and we will not identify your individual opinion without seeking your permission. Sometimes we will analyse your answers together with answers you gave to previous questionnaires to help us to understand things like how people's views are changing over time.

Would it be okay for us to contact you as part of this research?
